SITUATION SERIOUS AT CAIRO.
Every Railway Line There Involved and Not a Wheel Turning.

CAIRO, Ill., June 29.—The boycott against the Pullman company has assumed serious proportions, and last night the situation was more complicated than at any time. Every railroad line entering the city is now involved, and not a wheel has turned since 4 o'clock p. m., when a special train left over the Big Four road carrying a funeral party of nine persons.
Passenger trains on the Iron Mountain, Cotton Belt, Mobile and Ohio, and Big Four roads are not moving, while even the Illinois Central there are now six passenger trains sidetracked, four of which carry mail.

No freight trains are moving and business is at a standstill. Four trains of bananas consisting of ninety cars and eleven cars of tomatoes are laid up in the Illinois Central yards at Mounds, eight miles north of here, where they have been abandoned. A committee of strikers held a consultation with Superintendent Baker, of the Illinois Central. They agreed to allow the officials to remove all cars except those belonging to the Pullman company. A discussion arose as to what constituted a mail train when the men called upon the United States Marshal Brinton, who was present, for his opinion.

He addressed the crowd briefly in an unofficial way, being frequently interrupted by their good-natured banterings and trivial questions. The attorney for the Illinois Central telegraphed Judge Allen, of the district court, for an order to move all mail trains. The reply has yet been received. The United States marshal has received no instructions and it is impossible to forecast the action that will be taken by the court.

A BIG TIE-UP THREATENED.

The Whole Southern Pacific To Be Paralyzed in Certain Events.

SACRAMENTO, June 29.—The strike situation at this point appears to be unchanged. None but late trains are running in and out of the city. Officers of the A. R. U. claim that their association has a membership of 1,181 men in Sacramento and that they are all well prepared to maintain their boycott against the Pullman company coaches. S. D. Worden, delegate from the local lodge to the convention recently held in Chicago, states that if any of the union men shall be discharged by the Southern Pacific for refusing to haul Pullman cars the company will be given six hours in which to reinstate them. In event of a refusal the union will tie up the entire Southern Pacific system, both its freight and passenger service.

A committee from the A. R. U. published an affidavit sworn to by the union by three men setting forth that they have no intention of refusing in any manner to perform their duties as employees of the railway company upon any trains in the transportation of passengers or United States mails except on such trains as may

PULLMAN BOYCOTT.

Its Success as Viewed by the Strike Leaders.

DEBS AND HOWARD CLAIM VICTORY

Railway Managers Take a Different View, and Say the Situation is Better for Them—A United States Judge Sides with the A. R. U., and Advises the Dropping of Pullman—Condition of Things at Various Points on the Lines Affected.

CHICAGO, June 29.—A decided crippling of the railway traffic throughout the west was the condition of affairs that greeted President Debs and Vice President Howard, of the American Railway Union, on their arrival at the union headquarters.
If ever labor officials had reason to congratulate themselves upon the successful prosecution of a great railway battle, Debs and Howard could claim each other.
Reports brought in from various committees showed that every road running out of Chicago—except the Rock Island and "Wagnerian" roads—was tied up. The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul bore the first attack in the morning and the Chicago and Northwestern was wheeled into the line of "cripples." The Chicago and Alton, the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy and the Fort Wayne were also put on the strikers' lists.

The Railway Managers' View.
The above was the way the strike leaders stated the situation. The railway managers told a different story. They said in effect that the strike situation on the various railways entering Chicago had changed somewhat, but the changes had been to the benefit of the roads, as a general thing, and the detriment of the cause of the strikers. The effort to stop the movement of trains conveying Pullman coaches must be classed as a failure. It has only resulted so far in some slight inconvenience to the traveling public, trouble and delay to the railways and has stopped but few Pullman cars from entering or leaving this city. The only road entering Chicago that is at all embarrased at the present time is the Illinois Central. Here the walk-out of the switchmen, tower men, and the crews of the suburban trains has resulted in a partial paralyzation of traffic.

Report That Lacks Confirmation.
Which, as before stated, is the way the railway manager looks at it. The most turbulent point in this vicinity seems to have been at Hammond, Ind., where the strikers stopped mail trains and a report was wired here that Governor Matthews had ordered out the militia. This report is not true—at any rate there is no confirmation thereof. There was an attempt to drive the train of the Western Indiana company from its post at Fifty-fifth street. About a hundred strikers and idlers gathered at the tower and by coaxing and threats tried to induce the determination of the crowd. A call for help was sent to Englewood police station and a squad of officers went to the tower. The crowd dispersed without any further demonstration.

An Indiana Judge Refuses Help.
The roads received a setback in the attempt of aid from United States judges, when the officials of the Monon applied to Judge Baker, of the federal court at Indianapolis, for relief against the Pullman boycott. which had interfered with their cars at Hammond. Judge Baker refused to enter the United States mail. Judge Baker told them that if the company would not haul Pullman cars on the mail trains there would be no need to take the matter to court, as the trains would not be stopped.
